From the Huron Public Library:

- Have artwork or photography to share? Visit the Huron Public Library's Online Community Art Gallery to view art and photography shared by your community, then share your own by emailing photos to mckenna.leckrone@huronlibrary.org. All ages can participate.
- The Library is collecting nonperishable, unexpired food items for our Pay It Forward Food Drive this spring. If you have food items at home that you'd like to donate, visit the Library and find our drop-off box located near the main entrance.
- Check out a Read It & Watch Book Bundle while supplies last. Each bundle comes with a new or classic book paired with its matching film or TV show, along with some free movie candy and popcorn! There are bundles for all ages.
- Teens with fresh ideas to share can join the next Teen Library Council meeting on Monday, April 26 at 4 pm over Zoom. The TLC discusses programming and materials for teens and we always welcome new members!
- Need a gift for Mother's Day? Register for our next Take & Make Craft for Adults (and teens) and pick up a Give Mom Some Love! Kit on Friday, April 30. Each kit comes with all the supplies needed to make mom a special gift. Call the Library or visit our website to register.
- Follow the Library on Instagram, @huronlibrary, to see upcoming programs, memes, and other fun reading-related posts! Each Monday in May will feature a new challenge designed by the Library's Teen Library Council. Challenge winners will be selected each week and will get some gift cards to local eateries. Check it out today!
- To find more information about programs and current services being offered at the Library, visit huronlibrary.org or follow us on Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter.
