From the Library:

- Calling all poetry enthusiasts living or working in the 44839 zip code! Submissions for this year's 44839: Poetry Contest will be accepted until the end of May and select winners have a chance to receive cash prizes and get their poems published in the next volume of the 44839: Poetry from a Zip Code anthology. Find full rules for submission on huronlibrary.org.
- Have you always wanted your books to be a little more...exciting? Check out a NEW Teen Book Box full of items to enhance your reading experience. Pick your book and then take it to the Circulation Desk to receive a box full of goodies associated with various parts of the story. The best part is, you return the book and the box and keep the rest! Find book selections in the YA area of the Library today. For Grades 9 - 12.
- Children's books are for everyone! Celebrate the art of children's picturebooks during Children's Book Week from Monday, May 2 to Sunday, May 8. Find special displays, activities, bookmarks, and more!
- Play some Chess at the Library with chess master Paul Sherwood on Sunday, May 8 at 6 pm. Come for fun or to improve your game. Open to all ages and abilities.
- If you're looking for a more fast-paced game join fellow players for Euchre Night on Wednesday, May 11 starting at 6 pm in the AV area of the Library. Learn the game or come for practice. Open to teens and adults.
- To learn more about upcoming programs at the Library, or to find out about our free digital collection, follow the Library on Facebook, Instagram, or Twitter!
